

ELECTRONIC DELIVERY SERVICE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Scottrade's free Electronic Delivery Service provides documents, such as trade confirmations and account statements, electronically when you are logged in to your Scottrade account. These documents are archived online to access at your convenience.

By choosing the electronic delivery option on Scottrade's Online Application, I acknowledge that I am consenting to the electronic delivery of the documents selected and any other notice or disclosure, regulatory or otherwise, relating to my account. I further acknowledge that I have agreed to the provisions regarding electronic delivery stated in the Brokerage Account Agreement. I am aware that by consenting to electronic delivery, I am agreeing to suppress the mailing of paper documents. If Scottrade is unable to notify you electronically, you understand that Scottrade may, in its sole and absolute discretion, discontinue electronic delivery and send you account documents in paper form.

Once you consent, electronic delivery will remain in effect unless revoked by Scottrade or by you. You may revoke your consent to electronic delivery at any time by logging into our Web site and changing your preferences or by notifying us in writing. Your revocation is only effective after Scottrade receives and processes it. If you revoke your consent to some or all documents for which Scottrade offers electronic delivery, you will receive future account documents in paper form sent to the address indicated for your account. If Scottrade sends you paper documents, Scottrade will charge a fee at its then current fee schedule for delivery of paper documents.

There is no charge from Scottrade for electronic delivery, but online access and usage charges by your Internet service or access provider may apply. Other than access to a Web site via the Internet, you understand that there are no additional hardware or software requirements needed to access this information. The information will be made available in html or PDF format and may be printed and/or saved. You acknowledge that you can access documents in html or PDF format and print/download this information.
